Beliefs and practices

Christo-Paganism is a set of beliefs held by some neopagans that encompasses Christian teachings. Christo-Pagans may identify as witches,^{[1][2]} druids,^{[3][4]} or animists.^[5] Most, but not all, worship the Christian God.^[1] Some Christo-Pagans may consider the Virgin Mary to be a goddess, or a form of the Goddess.^{[1][6][7][8]} Christo-Pagans typically believe in the divinity of Jesus, and that Christian and neopagan beliefs are not mutually exclusive.^{[3][9][10]} Some Christians who convert to neopaganism are hesitant to entirely give up their original faiths, and become Christo-Pagans.^[11]

Some Christo-Pagans use rosaries and prayer beads,^[2] and pray to non-Christian deities, such as Persephone.^{[7][8]} Some may also practice ceremonial magic or magick.^{[2][10]} There are Christian priests who identify as Christo-Pagan.^{[3][4]}
